ACT NOW

Here are some of the ways in which you can take action.
Please share your goals with us either by returning this card or sending us an email, and we will follow up with any help and encouragement you need.

Please tick all that apply:

- Implement the specific actions you committed to during the session;
- Run an awareness-raising session for your congregation, office staff or ministers;
- Book our challenging and thought-provoking drama tackling domestic abuse in churches;
- Attend one of our national conferences;
- Connect with local service providers and grassroots charities;
- Have your church link up with Press Red's work through our Ambassador programme, aimed at committed church members;
- Use the resources on our website.
